

Reasons to Teach Language and Content to ELLs

Yvonne and David Freeman
The University of Texas at Brownsville

Reasons to Teach Language and Content

- Students get both language and content
- Language is kept in its natural context
- Students have real purposes to use language.
- Students learn the academic vocabulary of the content areas